THIS Union is formed to maintain the ancient marriage law of the land, and in particular to resist the legalisation of marriage with a wife's sister.
 Its efforts are directed to organizing committees throughout the United Kingdom; to diffusing information by lectures, publications, and otherwise on a subject on which public opinion has been much misled; to encouraging petitions to both Houses of Parliament; and to directing the attention of the Legislature to the true bearings of the question. A Ladies' Committee has been formed to assist the Union.

The whole principle on which the marriage law of this land is based is involved in the acceptance or rejection of the Deceased Wife's Sister Bill. In all countries where the marriage law has been relaxed in this one particular other relaxations have, after some lapse of time, been adopted; in some countries not only a woman marry her sister's husband, and a man marry his brother's wife, and his wife's niece, or, as in the State of New York, his wife's daughter, but in others a man is freely permitted to marry his niece by blood.

As the operations of the Union are very extensive, subscriptions and donations are earnestly requested.
 It will be obvious that the publications circulated by this Union, although the arguments and considerations contained in them point to the same conclusion, represent in particulars only the mind of their respective authors.

HURST & BLACKETT'S NEW WORKS.

THE REAL LORD BYRON: New

VIEWS of the POET'S LIFE. By JOHN CORDY JEAFFRESON, Author of "A Book about Doctors," &c. 3 vols., demy 8vo, 30s.
 "Mr. Jeaffecton comes forward with a narrative which must take a very important place in Byronian literature. Almost every chapter contains material which may be fairly called new, and it may reasonably be anticipated that these volumes will be regarded with deep interest by all who are concerned in the works and the fame of this great English poet."—Times.
 "No other book relating to the history of English literature in the nineteenth century has appeared of recent years that can claim to contain so much novel information as Mr. Jeaffecton's. He has produced a work that throws a flood of new light on the most critical periods of Byron's life, and that every future critic of modern English poetry will have to read and re-read."—Athenaeum.

REMINISCENCES of MILITARY

SERVICE with the 93rd SUTHERLAND HIGHLANDERS. By Surgeon-General MUNRO, M.D., C.B., formerly Surgeon of the Regiment. 1 vol., demy 8vo, 15s.
 "There is much in these interesting 'Reminiscences' that will gratify while it pains the reader. A book like this, which portrays the horrors, and not merely the showy side, of war has distinct usefulness. Dr. Munro recounts many incidents with pardonable pride."—Pall Mall.
 "These 'Reminiscences' make up a picture of a fine old regiment. The simple impressiveness of its narrative, its fervour of its esprit de corps, place this volume above the ordinary book of military recollections."—St. James's Gazette.

SIBERIAN PICTURES. By Lud-

WIK NIEMCZOWSKI. Edited from the Polish by Major SZULCZEWSKI. 2 vols., 21s.

THE NEW NOVELS.

THE SENIOR SONGMAN. By the AUTHOR of "ST. OLAVE'S," &c. 3 vols.

FARMER JOHN. By George

HOLMES. 3 vols.

A MAID CALLED BARBARA. By

CATHARINE CHILDAE, Author of "The Future Marquis," &c. 3 vols.

"This story is stronger and more romantic than the author's previous work. She has drawn some good characters, and there is not a little pathos in the lives of the hero and heroine."—Athenaeum.
 "The history of Barbara Warrington—a very unconventional and attractive heroine—has many points of interest in it, and it is well written."—Academy.

SAM'S SWEETHEART. By Helen

MATHEWS, Author of "Comin' thro' the Rye," &c. SECOND EDITION, 3 vols.

"A new novel by Miss Mathews is a great treat."—Athenaeum.
 "Sam's Sweetheart" is clever and amusing. It is superior to its predecessors from the same pen; the plot is closer, more coherent, and better constructed."—Graphic.

"This pleasing novel is admirably told. There is originality in the plot, and there is no lack of incident. It should command itself to readers for freshness of conception and of treatment."—Scotsman.
 "A vigorous story. The author has power, and some of her descriptions of bush life are full of beauty."—Academy.

HER SAILOR LOVE. By Mrs.

MACQUOID, Author of "Patty," "Diane," &c. 3 vols.

"Mrs. Macquoid has written her book well. The story is fairly constructed, and the descriptions and general phrase also deserve commendation."—Academy.
